

GORDON TARTAN

Williamsburg Festival This Saturday

1 October 2009

Come out Saturday to the Williamsburg Highland Festival and JOIN US AT THE GORDON TENT! We will be having a great time. The Gordon Grill will be fired up with sausages and peppers and onions. We will also have some beef and several different cheeses for sandwiches.

The Williamsburg Festival will be at Rockahock Campground in Lanexa, Virginia. Get directions here Albannach will be playing at the festival so be ready for some awesome music to stir the blood and soul.

We are hoping to put together a passable Haggis Hurl Team or two this year. Come volunteer to hurl or come to cheer on our ladies!

We hope to see you all at the tent having lots of fun!

Gordy blows the Haggis Whistle to start the Haggis Hurl at last year's Williams-

CALLING ALL GORDONS TO THE MEADOW HIGHLAND GAMES (RICHMOND) and USA AGM!

Last year the Gordon men swept the Bonnie Knees Competition!

As you all know we will be hosting the House of Gordon USA Annual General Membership Meeting and we have some BIG plans! We want to keep our usual Ceilidh Corner atmosphere that makes the Richmond games so much fun. So please plan to attend and bring a dish to share.

IN ADDITION TO our luncheons with Clan Donnachaidh each day, we will be hosting a supper Saturday evening after the closing ceremony at the event campground. We will have Cock Of the North Basted Pork Tenderloin, Virginia Tech Chicken and MORE! If you have a talent to share bring it on! Aaron will be piping, and we welcome all talent and dishes you wish to share! We hope to have a large contingent from Virginia as we are HONORED CLAN!
